Needmore Defeats Napa II. in the Last Jump by a Nose.

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACE, Morch 14.—Racing was continued at Guttenburg re-day with an excellent card of six races and over a dry, hard track. The weather spoiled what would otherwise have been a splendld day's racing. The bitter wind kept every one under cover, and dust flew in great clouds.

The track while dry and hard was not fast, The rules with the various events will show.

Needmore was also heavily played white the Western gelding Napa II. was plunged on at 10 to 1 so heavily that at the post 3 to 1 was the best that could be had.

The race furnished an exciting finish between Needmore and Napa II. The former won in the last jump by an eyelash.

The second event also furnished a pretty finish between Turk II. Miss Olive, Vancluse and Sir Launcelot, the quartet finishing heads agart.

the winner was an 8 to 1 shot. Miss Olive, at 7 to 1, filled the place.

Martin, on Miss Olive, claimed foul against Martin, on Miss Onive, commented the winner, but it was not allowed.

Again an outsider finished first. Smuggler, at 20 to 1, wen the third purse handly from Logan, a rank outsider at 40 to 1. Stratagem, the favorite, was third.
